

Media Release: CQS Appoints Mina Gerowin to Board

Mina Gerowin Joins CQS Board

24 June, 2019 – London for immediate release

CQS is pleased to announce that Mina Gerowin has been appointed as an independent non-executive director.

In her role she will support CQS in the development of its business strategy, working alongside the chair, wider board and executive management team.

Ms Gerowin has over 30 years' experience in financial services. She is presently a Director of 100 Women in Finance and on the Advisory Board of the Royal United Services Institute (RUSI). Formerly, she was a Director of EXOR SpA, CNH Industrial N.V., Lafarge SA and a member of the Global Advisory Committee of Samsung Asset Management. In 2005, Ms Gerowin joined Paulson & Co., leading the firm's European Event, Credit and active investments.

Commenting on Ms Gerowin's appointment, CQS' Chair Sir Michael Peat said: "With her wide range of experience and business acumen, Mina is a great addition to the Board."
